But injus, judgment, the clauses in $4 of the not under consideration, beneering the conveyance of the lands granted to the corporation as each section of 25 miles of the road is considerable in the operation of 25 miles of the road is considerable in the operation of the works of present grant in $5, so that it appears manifest, that while it was the intention of congress to set appart and devoit the lands in question absolutely to the construction of the N. This view of the question is further confrmed? by the provisions contained in $58 and 9 of the set, the plain purport and effect of which it, that if the company does not proceed with the work and required the United States may take the construction of the road into its own hands, and to that end, may dispose of or appropriate his ensured and unpatented lands in any way "notiful and necessary to lineure a speedy completion of the road on.

Such a power is compatible and consonant with the idea that the lands were devoted by congress to the construction of the road, but that the legal title and control of them should remain in the United States until the lands were accorded by congress to the construction of the road, but that the legal title and control of them should remain in the United States from completing it by this means, in the contingency contempt ted.

In Rice w Bailway Co., I Black, 338, it was held that an extigiving lands to the territory of Minnesota, to aid in the construction with another provision in the act to the effect that no title should vex in the territory until 20 miles of the road were so competed to the bandit of the usual recaedies for their removal of conversion.

The doctrine of the case is succinetty stated by Ifr. Joatice Field, in his opinion, as follows:

"They Judge Field, in his opinion, as follows:

"They J the authorities] establish the conclusion that anless, there are other clauses in a statute restraining the operation of words of present grant, those thust be taken in their material sense, in import an immediate transfer of the, sithough subjectment proceedings may be required to give precision to that title and attach it to specific tracts."

But in any judgatent, the clauses in 44 of the act under consideration, concerning the constituent of the lands or anted to the corporaunis means, in the contingoncy contemplified. In Bice we Railway C.n. I Black, 538, it was held that an act giving lands to the territory of Minnesots, to add in the construction of a rail way therein, by words of present grant—"there is hereby granted"—tid not pass the title to the territory, taken in connection with another provision in the act to the effect that no title should west in the territory until 20 miles of the plad were completed and accepted by the secrotary of the interior, when a patent should listed for so much of the grant and so on, as often as any 20 miles of the road were so completed and accepted. This ruling was approved in Schulenberg v Harriman, supra-62.

And although there is no express deduration in the North Pacific act, that the title shall went in the corporation until the completion of the clauses therein, which provide for conveying and confirming the ritle to the company by patent only upon the completion of the road or portions of it, set the logal effect of the clauses therein, which provide for conveying and confirming the ritle to the company by patent only upon the completion of the road or portions of it, is the same.

My conclusion then is, that the legal fitte to the unexperted to the united to the company to the united to the company to the content of the road or portions of the same.

States and the corporation is analogous to that veinfor and condensate latter being in possession under a contract to purchase and reserve a conveyance upon the payment of the act of constituting the consideration for the sale.

The premises up a which the difficult act the tunber in question being a part of the current lands he is guilty of violating § 4 of the act of June 3, 1878, (28 Stat. 9), when contact that any premains a may band of the United States in Gregor, with intent to export or the a the that key person who is short to have a key timber greening to any land of the U. attach it to specific tracts.

But in any judgarout, the classes in 64 of the act tander consideration, concerning the conveyance of the lands granted to the corporation as each section of 25 miles of the road is come invited and accepted by the granter, does rectain the operation of the words of present grant in 53, so that it appears mapifest, that while it mass the highanton of congress to set apart and devote the lands in question also intelly to the construction of the N. P. Ry, yet, it did not intend to part with the title to thebe, with, and only so fast, as they were curred by the completion of the work.
This view of, the question is further confirmed by the geovisions contained in §58 and 9 of the plain, purport and effect of whith is, that if the company does not proceed with the work and equipilete the road as rapidly at therein provided the United States may take the construction of the road into its own hands, and to that end, may dispose of or appropriate the unearned and unpatented lands in any way 'needful and necessary to insure a speedy completion of the road.

Such a priwer is compatible and consonant with the files that the lands were devoted by congress to the construction of the road, but that the legal title and control of the manual with the files and, but the construction in the road were carned by the company in the construction of the road, but that the legal title and control of the manual that were carned by the company in the construction of the road oncomber or equander the lands in advance of the construction of the road and thereby prevent the Uniced States from campileting it by this means, in the contingency contempt ted.
